DAYTON POLICE DEPARTMENT RECRUIT GRADUATION

The Dayton Police Department will hold the Graduation Ceremony for the 100th Police Recruit Class on Friday, August 24, at 7:00 P.M. at the Dayton Convention Center Theatre, Room 312.

22 Members will be sworn in as Dayton Police Officers and one will take the oath as a Supervisor for the Dayton Airport Police Department.

The 23 Recruits attended six months of training at the Dayton Police Academy, including courses on the Ohio Revised Code, Laws of Arrest, Firearms, Problem Oriented Policing, Defensive Tactics, Pursuit Driving, Cultural Diversity, First Aid and Physical Fitness. The class includes 21 males and 2 females; 4 African Americans and 1 Pacific Islander.

Ohio Attorney General Mike DeWine will be the keynote speaker at the ceremony. Dayton City Commissioner Dean Lovelace will administer the Oath of Office. Awards will be presented for the Top Academic, Top Firearms and Top Physical Fitness winners.

All media personnel are invited to attend.
